Lamanai Ruins- Lamanai is a major Mayan ruin site, much larger than Altun Ha. The trip into these ruins is almost as good as the visit to the site- you will enter via boat, and private van- through the northern waters of the Crooked Tree Wildlife Sanctuary- into Lamanai Lagoon. The site is well preserved, there are spider and howler monkeys, and wonderful opportunities to see some of the abundant birdlife of Belize. Trip is all day- from 8am to 5pm, includes lunch. Entrance into the ruins is not included and is approximately $5 per person.

High Season: Jan 1st – April 30th 2006    Low Season: May 1st – Dec 14th 2006
